WR227 Homework Assignment
“Toast” Procedure

Format: This assignment must be legibly hand-written, double-spaced, in black or dark blue pen on only one side of lined notebook paper with no ragged edges from being torn out. If you use several sheets for this assignment, you must fasten all the sheets together with a staple in the upper left corner.

Within ½” of the upper right corner of all sheets, print your last name, a comma, a space, and your first name as in the following example:

Sakamoto, Natasha

Content: This is a two-part assignment:

1. For an audience of your LBCC classmates who have average cooking skills and experience, write instructions on how to make and serve two slices of buttered toast.
2. In a minimum of two paragraphs, separate from the instructions themselves, state every single assumption you made while writing Part 1.

Due date: Turn in your paper at the beginning of the next class period, on Thursday, January 9.

Grading: This assignment will be graded carefully, but the letter grade will not count toward your course grade. (The intent is to introduce you to how I grade.) You will receive 10 points for turning in the assignment, 0 points if you don’t turn it in.
